About Noelia Soldera & Orlando Farias

Noelia Soldera & Orlando Farias are among the most dynamic and stylistic young dancers to come out of Buenos Aires today. Both come from a solid background not only in Argentine Tango but in ballet and modern dance. They have delighted audiences throughout Buenos Aires where they are cast members of the popular “Tango Métropolis” show, and have toured the U.S. with performances and workshops in cities such as Los Angeles. Their style is defined by energy, grace and sensuality. Their workshops will teach dancers not only the basics of connection but delightful surprises from movements and figures grounded in the exploration of sensuality and creativity from pleasurable tangos.

Suggested Combinations and Descriptions of Workshops

If you are ...	You should take
Brand new to Argentine Tango or Milonga, or still working on the basics	Definitely take T1 and T2 and if you are making good progress. These will include basic material on walks, balance, weight placement, salida, listening to music, achieving a sense of floorcraft and the dance floor from the beginning, and musicality.
Advanced Beginner: Have taken more than a few classes and can dance comfortably about the room	Take all Saturday's workshops: T1-M1 . T1 and T2 will introduce “figures for the dance floor,” i.e., figures to move forward, to stay in place, to take advantage of openings, etc., and will include material on leading while dancing close to your partner. T2 will teach more challenging techniques.
Intermediate Argentine Tango/Milonga dancer: Can lead or follow comfortably and can do some degree of turns (giros)	Take all Sat and Sun . Noelia & Orlando's dynamic material and technique in T1-T4 and M1 &amp; V1 are indispensable, and you will get more out of them than the beginners. T3 &amp; T4 will add more advanced Tango material, again with a view to exploiting available space on the floor & surprising your partner. M1 or V1 will incorporate the milonga and vals into your dance and include material on using the body effectively for each rhythm, played in 10-20% at social dances. T4 will seek to inspire you to a dramatic dance.

Prices, Discounts, Registration: Registering in advance gets you the lowest prices—just over $10 per hour and a half of instruction (for members in advance taking multiple workshops).
